

Reading With Expression:

1. Stop at periods.

2. Hesitate at commas.

3. Emphasize some key words.

Try this: She was crying when she saw that present.
She was crying when she saw that present.
She was crying when she saw that present.

4. Read ahead to see how to read a quote.

Try this: "He is over there," said Tammy.
"He is over there," whispered Tammy.
"He is over there," giggled Tammy.
"He is over there," screamed Tammy.